

A record of action, a promise of more

Working for our community

I am proud to be your Conservative Candidate for St George West.

I have lived here since 2000, and although there have been many improvements in that time, I believe there is still so much that could be done to put our vibrant Bristol village on the map.

Some of you may already know me through my work, running my own local small business as an electrician, or you may see me in our park with my two young sons. Many of you have already spoken to me about issues that concern you, and about the way the City Council is being run.

I can assure you that I am here to campaign for all St George West residents, regardless of your politics, so please do not hesitate to contact me if you have a problem or concern.

Campaigning over the last year in St George has been an eye opener. Local issues are practical and concern the quality of our daily lives. They include problems with parking and rodents, dissatisfaction with Council action and inaction, and concerns about the rising rate of crime in our area (amongst many, many, other things).

St George West is not just a fringe to Easton or a through route for buses from the outskirts. I have fought hard for our local issues, whilst our current Councillors have been silent when it mattered. Vote for me on May 3rd, and let us make St George ship shape and Bristol fashion again.

I promise to campaign on your behalf to:

1. Fight for better services for our area and to end years of Labour neglect
2. Make better use of the Park, as the centre of our community for everyone
3. Improve and expand youth services
4. Promote a clean and green environment
5. Expose the lack of consultation on the new bus route and see further concessions to the plans
6. Reverse the trend of spiralling crime and anti-social behaviour in the area

Bristol City Council Elections

Thursday 3rd May 2007

"So let us be clear about what we're fighting for. We're fighting to improve our National Health Service, which makes such a difference to the quality of so many people's lives. We're fighting for a cleaner, greener environment - locally and globally - for this generation and those that will follow.

We're fighting to support our families: with childcare, with more flexible career opportunities, with a commitment to marriage as the essential institution of a strong society. We're fighting to tackle the causes of poverty as well as its symptoms, and we're fighting for better schools so every child has the chance to fulfil their potential. We're fighting for better public transport so it's not such a hassle to get around.

And we're fighting to cut the crime that wrecks the quality of life in so many of our neighbourhoods."
